

Class Assignment 1:

An example you have experienced where you think there is a success and/or failure in the design.

1. Describe the design
2. Point out the indication of success and/or failure (and how you detect the strength and/or weaknesses?)
3. What is your reference for judgment?

Students are free to present whatever is visually possible to express their views.